NEVER AT PEACE.
BUYS PHILLIES
TO GAIN ENDS.Spends Fortune to Win the Decisive Vote.Syndicate Would Elect Ward League President.Baseball War Threatens If Murphy Succeeds.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 26.—The Philadelphia National League baseball club was sold today to a syndicate, of which Horace S. Fogel of this city is the head. The price is said to be $250,000.

The deal was consummated in the office of Clarence Wolf, one of the owners of the Philadelphia club. As soon as the papers had been signed, representatives of the syndicate, went to Camden, N. J., and organized by electing Horace S. Fogel, president, William Conway, secretary, and Frank S. Elliott, treasurer.

These men, together with John A. Schwartz and Thomas Curley, will comprise the board of directors. The club is incorporated in New Jersey.

Charles W. Murphy, president of the Chicago club of the National League, represented his organization at the conference, to see that provisions of the National League constitution were properly observed. The fact that Murphy was present caused a rumor that he would be financially interested in the new management. Murphy denies this.

The Philadelphia club was formerly owned by Clarence Wolf, a banker; James P. McNinch, a Philadelphia politician, and the late Israel W. Durham, a political leader.

An offer of $150,000 was made to President Murphy for the club. Murphy, however, declined the offer. John Kling, providing the National Commission would reinstate the famous Chicago catcher.

President Fogel has been identified with several Philadelphia papers as a sporting writer and manager of the Philadelphia and New York clubs. Conway was formerly president of the Philadelphia Builders' Exchange. Elliott is a lawyer. Schwartz is a silk manufacturer from Curley, a lawyer and politician of Camden.

William J. Shetline, secretary of the old organization, will act as business manager of the new organization.

The deal is broken.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.] PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 26.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The deal has greater significance than its local features, for the transfer of the stock to new owners means the overthrow of the Dreyfus-Herrmann forces, which have been backing President John Heydler for reelection to that office next month, and the control of the National League by the coalition of John T. Brush of New York, Charles W. Murphy of Chicago, and H. E. Elberts of Brooklyn, and the new Philadelphia owners.

Involved in the sale is the most cunning coup known to fast-set baseball, for the interests supporting the candidacy of John Montgomery Ward for the National League presidency virtually spent thousands of dollars to buy a club to make his election sure.

Prior to the sale four clubs were for the collection. Heydler and four clubs were against him, but after the rules he would hold office, a majority of the votes were not cast against him.

Charles W. Murphy, president of the Chicago club, knew that Senators McNinch and Wolf, former owners of the Phillies, had pledged their support to Heydler. When the report reached Murphy that Horace Fogel was in the market for the Phillies, he decided to move on the belief that the new regime would remove the club from the Heydler column.

In this instance it is said the Philadelphia club has lost its vote for the election of Ward for National League presidency, which will break the deadlock.

Under National League rules no transfer of the ownership of a club can be made unless sanctioned by that body. Therefore, Fogel welcomed the friendly offices of Murphy, who gave him the trouble of coming to Philadelphia to see the deal through, but of course, more in the role of an interested spectator.

Murphy and Fogel may have talked over the National League presidency, or they may not have, but there is every reason to believe the Philadelphia vote will be cast for John Montgomery Ward.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.] CINCINNATI, Nov. 26.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] A baseball class equal in importance to the one between the American and National leagues, which terminated in the signing of a peace agreement in 1902, is anticipated if President Charles W. Murphy of the Chicago baseball club permits his avowed intention of electing John M. Ward, president of the National League, tonight to take effect.

The American League will refuse to act on the National Commission if John M. Ward is elected the National League's representative on that body. The reasons are given to followers of the game, and especially to the National League. The American League does not want Murphy, Ward or any other baseball mixed up with the game, and if Murphy insists on Ward and succeeds in electing him, the American League will refuse to act with the National Commission. As far as Hermann is concerned, the American League would act for a lifetime with him, but with Ward not for a minute.

It is believed Murphy has secured the fifth vote necessary to elect John M. Ward, president of the National League. One of Johnson's reasons for opposing Ward is Ward's connection with the pumping of a contract from the Chicago Americans to New York club some years ago.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.] CINCINNATI, Nov. 26.—President August Hermann of the National Baseball Commission, when asked tonight concerning the proposition for the release of Catcher Kling by the Chicago National League team for $15,000 to Philadelphia, said:

"Kling is ineligible at present, but the commission will take no action in the matter unless he starts playing with Philadelphia, or some other organized team. Then his case will be taken up."

THEY BOX FOR

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 26.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] For sweet charity's sake, A. J. Drexel-Biddle, society boxer and Sunday-school superintendent, shed some of his blue blood tonight. any sale of the Philadelphia team beyond what he had seen in the papers. He added, however, that from a conversation he had had with Charles W. Murphy recently, he believed that the Chicago baseball magnate was interested.

Charles P. Taft of this city, owner of the Chicago National League club, said that he had no information regarding the Philadelphia deal and could not say whether Murphy was financially interested.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.] KANSAS CITY, Nov. 26.—After reading the details of his provisional sale to the Philadelphia National League club, John A. Kling said tonight he would not entertain any offers the club might make for his services. Neither would he play with any other club in the league.

"I am out of baseball for all time," said Kling. "My business interests are here. I am making money. Therefore, I shall stay."

It was learned tonight that Kling had just signed a seven-year lease for a site for a baseball park here, where his semi-professional baseball club will play.

HOGAN STILL BUSY.

Happy Hogan of the Vernon team is the most busy baseball manager in the league these days, and if he does not have a winner next season it will not be due to lack of hustling for players.

BLACKS TALK BUSINESS.

JOHNSON OUT
FOR THE COIN.Still Asking Langford to Put Up Big Forfeit.Woodman Again Says That Money Is Ready.Kaufman Dreams of a Battle With Jeffries.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

NEW YORK, Nov. 26.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Jack Johnson, champion of the world, is willing to give Sam Langford a chance to win his title. He is prepared to sign articles of agreement for a battle to take place within thirty days and will sign up any minute of the day that Langford appoints.

There is left one stipulation upon which Johnson says he will strictly insist. That is that Langford will give him a side bet of $10,000 in real coin. George Little, manager of the big black, says that he came here in search of Langford's forfeit of $10,000, which he was informed was posted with a local paper. A thorough search of all the sporting departments of local sheets failed to uncover the money.

The following message was received from Boston:

"If Little is looking for that $10,000 side bet he won't have far to look," declared Joe Woodman, manager of Sam Langford, this afternoon. "The money will be paid."

The posting of $10,000 by Sam Langford and the known desire of Al Kaufman to meet Jeffries before the latter leaves for Europe, has created considerable discussion among sporting men. Many doubt that it would be wise for either Jeffries or Johnson to take on these men previous to the championship fight.

The thought that it would be an easy chance for the big fellows to win some money and at the same time attract attention to the fight, is being considered. It would be rash for either man to run the risk of defeat, which would kill all interest in the contest between them for the world's championship.

It has been suggested that a battle between Langford and Kaufman would be interesting, as the result would furnish a challenger for the winner of the Jeffries-Johnson fight.

The battle will be made over the world's championship.

Railroad King Increase in Price of Foodstuffs is Law of Supply and Demand.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.] ST. PAUL, Nov. 26.—While not entirely agreeing with the content statement issued by Bradstreet, which indicates that the consumption of food products in this country has caught up with production, James J. Hill said today the point nearly has been reached.

"It is a matter that should be seriously considered," said Mr. Hill.

"Our present balance of trade is an indication that the margin between our production and consumption is becoming narrower. Look at the figures ten years ago and now."

"Exporting to us as we were, we are consuming them ourselves."

"The reason for the increase in price this year over last year is a matter of supply and demand."

Piano Credits

Having just made special arrangements with piano manufacturers, we are now able to obtain from them the amount of your credit, even though it may be for as little as $10.00, and charge the same to their advertising department, which enables you to sell a piano at the same price if a credit is used as though we get all cash, or even if you prefer purchasing on small monthly payments.

Our prices are considered to be lower than those of any other piano establishment on the Coast, considering the high quality of pianos, and just at this time we have a special sale of Exposition prize-winning models of the old time-honored makes. Reduced $125, $150, $175 and even $250 from the regular list prices. Used pianos $150 to $475.

If you are the holder of a piano credit of any kind, no matter by whom issued, bring it to our store at once, and see how much more it will enable you to buy here than elsewhere. Call or write.

ALL TOGETHER FOR BIG PARTY.

Republicans to Make a Fine Showing Tonight.

Shet and Farish Men Will Join the Rally.

Alexander Forces United for Demonstration.

Republican candidates for city together with others interested in success of the party ticket, are expected to appear tonight at a grand rally which is to be held at headquarters, 1224 South Spring street, a number of those who have been most active in the campaign. Farish and Shet are expected to speak. This is the real opening of the Republican campaign, which will be held with vigor for the next ten days. Indications are that it will be a success, and that the party ticket will be the real opening of the election of Smith, the entire party ticket. A dismissal yesterday of the proceedings instituted by Musket against Smith for supremacy in the party returns, caused the bulk of the party following to go over into the camp, and it was seen late in afternoon by the Republican party that the only task before them to get out the vote on December 10 to elect the straight ticket.

WATCH FOR ROBBERS.—Mishers were life of robbers to be by the "Go Go" forces at the minute, and there also was talk of something "up the street." Farish and Shet are expected to speak. A Cleveland Democrat, also is among those who are expected to speak. A Grand Army life and drum will assist in stirring enthusiasm. BEGINNING OF SERIES.—His will be the start of a series of meetings that will be conducted by Republicans for the next ten days. It will be a gathering of some 200 men, and some nights there will be several meetings. The German-American Alliance will be an assemblage of its own on Wednesday night at Turner Hall on street, when the speakers will be the election of Smith and the Republican ticket. Another thing will be held on Thursday night in the "locality formerly known as the Ninth Ward," and a meeting will be on the program for Saturday.

RAN ON BILL POSTERS.—It was reported yesterday that the Alexander administration was working energetically to prevent the Republican forces from making its cards, telephone poles and other backbones of publicity, thus discriminating between candidates at the general of primary elections. No such discrimination was made during the primary campaign, when every candidate for office was permitted to place every pole and tree with his card. But the situation apparently is more acute now with the "Go Go" and the fair vote stop any further publicity in favor of Smith and his associates on the Republican ticket. It was reported yesterday that the strike Polish vote of the city will go to the election of Smith at the general election. There are nearly 50 of these voters, and they are strongly opposed to the election of Alexander.

"RATS" UNDER BAN.—The negro residents of Los Angeles also are reacting for a grand rally next week, when they will come out strong for Smith, though a discarded tool of Boss Lister is attempting to swing the colored vote for Alexander. Property Owners' and Voters' Association.—The Property Owners' and Voters' Association of Los Angeles has called a meeting for next Monday evening at No. 412 Central avenue, when all candidates for city office will be given an opportunity to speak. Harry E. Hall is secretary of this organization.

One rebelled for several days, and wore her high pompadour conspicuously among her sleek-headed companions, but finally appeared without it. This new rule applies only during duty hours, but the girls say that if once the men see them without "rats" and "extras," thus destroying all illusion, to put them on again will not inspire masculinity with new faith. It will be skeptical, even "rats" hair styled up unusually big, they aver.

FEELS PINCH.—ARRESTED AS A RUNAWAY.—BOY, BIG STORY-TELLER, TAKEN BY POLICE.

Admits to the Officers That His Father is a Retired Capitalist of Tacoma, Wash., and That He Left the Parental Home Two Weeks Ago. Gay Life at Hotel.

After a two-weeks' stay at the Lankershim hotel, where his chief amusement lay in trying to stagger the bell-boy with stories of his exploits as a rich man's son, with a long and checkered career among the old boys in diplomatic Washington, D. C., and a tremendously rich job as an advance agent for Eddie Foy, the noted comedian, Fred H. Brokaw, a fifteen-year-old boy, was arrested last night as a runaway from home. Brokaw, the police say, got into trouble when he ran out of funds, as called on Martin A. Joyce at the office of the Globe Milling Company, No. 925 East Third street, and introduced himself as the son of a prominent resident of San Francisco who is interested in the northern mill of the company. The boy said he had come down to Los Angeles on a pleasure trip, and had run out of funds. He wished to borrow a small sum, a mere $20, would Mr. Joyce oblige him? Mr. Joyce certainly would, and the boy, who was dressed in a suit and tie, and who had a pocket full of money, was accordingly sent north.

At the Lankershim, it was stated that young Brokaw registered at the Washington, D. C., and had been there no more than a couple of weeks. He did not spend much money, and had only an unpretentious room, but his penchant for making companions of the bell boys, and the astonishing stories he told, about his father, caused the hotel management to suspect that the boy might not be exactly all right, and a check-up was kept on him. Brokaw's father, it was stated, was a retired capitalist, living in Tacoma, He begged that his father be advised of his predicament, and a telegram was accordingly sent north.

John Kling, the star catcher of the Chicago National League, was mentioned as the probable manager of the Philadelphia club, and it is said that Kling's release had been purchased from the Chicago club for $15,000. It was reported that he was quoted by the National Commission.

But he was never employed as a government agent, the department officials at Washington state, nor was he ever requested to assist in getting evidence against those who were suspected of land fraud. Skinner appeared surprised when placed under arrest. At first he refused to discuss his case, but later said that the indictment was "spite work" on the part of his enemies. He said naturally his efforts in ferreting out fraud had made many enemies, and that he had been persecuted more than once for his efforts in that line. "I was arrested some time ago in Imperial county," said he, "and bail was fixed at $7000. the new line, in charge of traffic.
Mr. Schumacher, a traffic official of long experience, is spending a few days in Los Angeles, winding up affairs in connection with his old association with the El Paso and Southwestern.
He declared last night that he knew nothing of the reported intention of the Western Pacific to make an entrance into Southern California, though at the same time, he admitted that there is much business here which would be welcomed by the line with which he is about to become connected.
As for a connection with Southern California by way of the Tomopah and of the detective department. shal Franklin, upon an indictment of fraud, they never pressed the case.

The present indictment is based on similar allegations. I do not fear trial. I have done nothing criminal," Skinner denied that he had ever posed as a government officer. He said it was not his fault if some of the settlers thought he was a special agent when he began to make his investigations in the valley. Attorneys Noleman and Smyser, who have acted for Skinner in his numerous contests, stated they believed their client is guiltless of the charge preferred against him. They said they never advised or aided him in anything that looked illegal and that the contests were based on good grounds to every man who took part in the matter.

When the ill-fated Jacobs family arrived that afternoon at the home of Robert Du Bois, near Latin station, the sparkler in Jacobs's automobile was not working steadily. As if to forewarn the driver of danger, the machinery stopped twice and left the car suddenly motionless.
After taking supper at the Du Bois home, the Jacobs family clambered gaily into the machine and started away. Within a few feet of the house the car stopped. The host of the evening rushed out and inquired into the nature of the trouble. He was told "it's only the sparkler."

 In fact, Mr. Schumacher said that the situation is so new to him that he has not yet had an opportunity to become posted. He intimated that it would be a good idea to wait until the Western Pacific starts its trains before asking what might be done in the matter of traffic and rates.

 A few minutes later everything was apparently in good working condition only the sparkler. It failed on the north-street crossing of the Pacific Electric line, and the happy family was suddenly scattered along the tracks, its members dead or maimed.
 "The frailty of human life and how little often stands between it and death is exemplified by the connection between one little flash of an intangible something called electricity and the anguished wailing of the spirit of life from five of my dearly beloved friends," said Robert Du Bois, in discussing the accident yesterday. He shuddered as he spoke, and after a pause continued: "My wife and I

When it will be in shape to carry passengers is something that I do not know. The matter of freight rates is another thing on which I am not prepared to make a statement. I do know that the line with which I am about to be connected is after all the business it can get, but I know nothing of the concessions it may be prepared to make.

Meet Him.

The exploits of the "ladder burglar" in Los Angeles promise to rival the doings of the famous Raffles of fiction. He paid a visit to the home of Joseph H. Bohon, No. 1246 West Adams street, Thursday night, being his fourth dinner-hour call in a fashionable home this season.

His appearance was attended by an unusual amount of excitement, the thief not being able to get away before his presence was known. His departure was hastened by a series of shots from a neighbor, the hands of Mr.

assignors of various tracts had secured them fraudulently. Skinner apparently did not recognize the importance of the discovery, for he merely used the alleged evidence to bolster up his contentions.

HAUNTED LAND OFFICE.

From that time on, Skinner used to haunt the land office and when not in the city he was looking up entries which seemed vulnerable. In several interviews in the summer of 1907 Skinner admitted that he filed the contents with the hope of making the entrymen or assignees pay him well for dismissing the suits. He said this kind of

A pitiful gathering passed most of yesterday afternoon at the undertaking establishment of Cunningham & O'Connor. Friends and relatives viewed the remains of the five who perished there, Peter and Frank De surviving Jacob's boys, appeared mute and apathetic as if trying to believe that it was all a horrid nightmare from which they would soon awake to join in a happy reunion.

EASIER TO PREVENT

Most physicians are agreed that the best way to combat most ill is by the indirect method of stimulating the body's natural powers in fighting and destroying the germs of disease. Consumption, for example, is much easier to prevent than it is to cure, and throughout the land a determined warfare is being waged to lessen the danger of infection by this insidious disease. Coughs and colds are a prolific source and should not be neglected.

At the first sign of a cold, steps should be taken to check it at once, and this can best be done with a simple mixture of two ounces of Glycerine, a half-ounce of Virgin Oil of Pine compound pure and eight ounces of pure whiskey. These can be mixed together in a large bottle. Shake well and take a teaspoonful every 4 hours. It is claimed by the Leach Chemical Co., of Cincinnati, who prepare the Virgin Oil of Pine compound pure for dispensing through druggists, that this mixture will break up a cold in 24 hours and cure any cough that is curable.

HEIRS' DILEMMA.

SELL TO SAVE
FROM SHARKS.

ONE PLAN PROPOSED FOR KEAT-ING HEIRS.

Judge, Who Says He Is Somewhat of a Farmer Himself, Has Something to Say About the Value of Alkali Land at a Distance from Los Angeles.

The proposed sale of the lands belonging to the estate of Andrew J. W. Keating, and involving a sum in excess of $600,000, was up in Judge Rives' court yesterday. Beyond an attempt of the warring factions to get together on some method by which the value of the holdings might be ascertained, nothing was accomplished. The court postponed further action until Monday afternoon, when it is expected some method will be arranged that will dispose of the question.

One of the features of the day was the filing of an amended complaint by the objecting heirs, setting out matters as developed in the testimony, and removing all allegations of fraud on the part of the trustees, A. W. McPherson and E. R. McDowell. The allegation was further made that in the opinion of the protestants a sufficient sum has not been offered for the large acreage.

A tentative tender of $550,000 for the sale of what is known as the Bonita Meadows part of the land, lying between Pico and Adams streets, was made in the course of the hearing, this sum being $125,000 in excess of what that part of the estate was appraised at. There seemed to be the greatest difference of opinion among the attorneys as to how the bids should be received, whether for the property as a whole, or whether it should be disposed of as blocks desired, each one to say what piece he wanted and what he would give for it.

Judge Rives took occasion to express some radical views in regard to the sale of the land. He thought the interests of all the heirs would be subserved by selling the property in block, and referred in terms of praise to the work of the appraisers in putting the good land with that not so good, so as to provide a market for both. The court thought it would be an injustice not to entertain bids for the land, and he believed from what he recalled of the testimony that the bid of $500,000 was probably too low.

Continuing, Judge Rives said: "But the heirs to this estate are impecunious, and they are involved, some of them mortgaging their interests for large amounts. I believe that if Keating were alive and knew how his children were in debt he would favor the sale of the property he has left them. This is the lot of attorneys about Keating protesting from his grave against the proposed sale does not appeal to me. But the land cannot be subdivided and retain its value. I am somewhat a farmer myself, and the allegation that land twenty miles from Los Angeles, full of alkali, is worth $100 and $200 an acre is not true, unless it might be worth that to some man or syndicate able to hold it until it could unload on somebody. But the average farming land is worth only what it will produce, and an artificial value only appeals to those who are in the business for speculative purposes."

If the Keating heirs, or at least some of them, should hold on to their property, it would not be long until the money sharks will have a hold on them and squeeze them to death. If the land is sold now and the money divided, they will at least have the fun of spending their patrimony that otherwise will be eaten up with interest and other charges. I think it a wise thing to make a clean-up of the whole thing."

Continuing, the court said: "I desire all parties concerned to get together on some feasible plan to dispose of this land to the interests of the heirs, but I do not say that I will confirm the sales unless the bids are what I consider fair and representative of the true value of the property."

Attorney McDonald thought the rights of the Keating children were being trampled upon, and he quoted the constitution in support of his view, but the court was against him. McDonald pleaded that no note should be made until after the youngest son of the testator should become of age, on December 23, when each of the children may do as they please with his share, sell the acreage, or hold it, as the will of the father contemplated.

It was argued on behalf of the sale that the trustees were now possessed of the fee simple title to the land, and can sell without the order of the court if they so desire, but it has been agreed that such sales should be confirmed.

Once a Year

Once a year we buy a special grade of cocoa beans—enough to last us the twelve months.

These beans, the best we can get, from plantations famous for the flavor of their product, are carefully mixed and blended. That is why Ghiradelli's Ground Chocolate is distinguished from all other preparations by its constant uniformity of flavor.

Fifty-seven years of experience in making one product has resulted in Ghiradelli's Ground Chocolate being so delicious, so wholesome, so easily digestible, so nourishing and so economical that its sale exceeds the combined sale of all other chocolates and cocoas for table use on the entire Pacific Coast.

The mere fact that other manufacturers use the name "Ground Chocolate," which has been associated with the name Ghiradelli since 1875, does not mean that their imitations have the merits of the genuine Ghiradelli's Ground Chocolate.

Do not be misled by this use of a name.

Insist always that you want Ghiradelli's, the original Ground Chocolate. If you can't get the genuine, get your money back.

Where You Loved Me, Long Ago
There's a country, sweet with memory,
A beautiful, glad country where you

Cloudless sky above it—what sorrow

Thornless pathways leading to valleys

The years brought tears, my darling
The far-off skies
Drooping through the shadow of the

TRIUMPH'S SQUELCHED.
Stanford University Students With Stage Ambitions Get Severe Shock
by Recent Ruling.

STANFORD UNIVERSITY, Nov. 26.
—Stanford dramatics, which have had a season of unprecedented success this semester, received a setback yesterday, when the Student Affairs Committee announced that hereafter no student shall be allowed to appear in more than one dramatic performance
in one term.
Several of the leading student actors
have appeared in two or three productions this semester, and were planning to score several triumphs next term.
The purpose of the new ruling is to protect these students, who, the Student Affairs Committee believes, will not have time to maintain the required standard of scholarship. The ruling also will allow many students who have not heretofore taken a part in dramatics to enter theatricals.

TWO AERONAUTS DEAD.
Men Were Noted as Daring Members of Berlin Aero Club; Balloon Collapsed.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.]
BERLIN, Nov. 26.—Dr. Breckmann and Hugo Franke, the two most daring members of the Aero Club of Berlin, have been killed through the collapse of their balloon Koimar.
Their bodies were found today near Plume, Austria-Hungary. Near by was their balloon, a huge rent in the envelope telling the story of their death.
Breckmann was the third person to lose his life with the newly-formed company which takes air navigation risks. He was connected with the Charity Hospital of Berlin and Franke was an architect. Their aerial exploits had attracted much attention.
They ascended on Monday from a suburb of Berlin. The point where the bodies were found is on the northern edge of the Gulf of Quarnero, at the northeast extremity of the Adriatic Sea, and in an almost direct line 500
miles south of Berlin.

used it to pay off the railroad men

FACTS, FEATURES
ARE FANCIES
FOR WOMEN

BY MISS SYDNEY FORD.
What are you going to give the men of your family for Christmas? It is quite time we were thinking about it.
For the average woman knows that it requires more careful thought to select appropriate and acceptable gifts for father and the boys than for the whole contingent of female relatives.
"What shall I get for father?" is a common plaint about holiday time and just because it is a bit difficult to decide we are apt to put it off till the last minute and then fall back on the time-honored and perennial offering of a necktie.
Just for a change, suppose we decide on "father's" gift first this season and get it off our minds. Yesterday
I started out with the definite purpose of finding suitable gifts for the men members of the family. I found the men's furnishings stores are in league with us to provide presents that will please and profit. We'll begin with the inexpensive things and then work up gradually to the $50 class—we'll not include automobiles in the list.

Scarfs and Neckties.
There are the knit scarfs put up in neat boxes and these scarfs, by the way, are very much in vogue this year. You may get a handsome one for half a dollar in any color you choose. The Gentleman's Journal, which is authority on the subject of men's garb, says that the knitted scarf, done in a close weave, is quite the correct thing. For motorizing it is especially suitable as it has enough substance to protect the neck and chest as well as adorn it. There are also knitted suspenders to match the scarfs,
although the satin-finished suspender
is rather more often seen.
In the matter of neckties, we hear a great deal just now about Persian patterns which are always effective.
Do a bit careful in selecting ties for yourself. Be sure to get a color that does not scream and a style that is absolutely correct. Many men are nervous to the hurried and unwise selection of their womenkind in Christmas neckties. Avoid the extreme and bizarre and confine yourself to delicate tints of pink, rather somber colors. If "father" wants a gay tie, let him select it himself—do not force it upon him.
There are handkerchiefs and socks put up in neat Christmas boxes, and these staple articles of wearing apparel are always acceptable.

Some Swell Bath Robes.
Then there are some very swell bath
robes—the Terry robes with slippers
to match—that I saw at a leading drygoods store. These come in sets—the bath robe itself, a pair of toe slippers
and a big bath towel—all matching.
They are in Persian design in dull blues, or greens, or reds, or browns, or grays—each set put up in a handsome box—and they are not expensive, the price running from $5 to $9. I believe any man would be delighted with such a gift. There are the "blanket" bath

Walking Sticks and Umbrellas.
There are distinctive walking sticks and umbrellas. One of the leading jewelry firms is offering a line of these which would please the most fastidious
man who ever promenade Broadway.
Made of rare woods, of imported varieties and mounted in solid gold or silver, these make elegant gifts. A new fad is to give umbrellas and walking sticks to match, or an elegant walking stick to match for lady and gentleman. Prices run from $5 up and include engraving on the metal mounted handles. If your husband is fond of golf, you might get him one of those new walking sticks of darkly stained bamboo with a silver handle like the head of a golf club. Some represent cades or match boxes inside. At one of the big department stores I saw a line of walking sticks and umbrellas
made of kiesel wood inlaid with silver which were odd and attractive.

Leather Goods and Books.
I went through a big leather store where everything imaginable in the shape of leather goods is carried—from a watch fob of pin seal with gold monogram—price $5—to an elegant walrus, silver fitted suit case at $50.
There were handsome traveling bags
of walrus, with silver or celluloid fittings, for $20 and up.
In the matter of gloves, better give "father" a glove order instead of attempting a selection. Men are particular about their gloves and it is far easier to manage the matter this way.
The same applies to hats and underwear.
At the art stores there are shown
some elegant desk fittings—in the arranged or pleated brass or in the art and crafts design. Prices run from $1 up and the average man whose business requires desk work, will be sure to appreciate such a set.
Then there are books. Why, there is a very good copy of Webster's un-abridged dictionary offered at one of the big department stores for a dollar.
Doesn't seem possible, but it's true. I saw 'em in the window, and I went inside and examined the book. Of course, the binding is not in toilet leather, nor the pages of satin-finished paper—but the words are there—1764
pages of dictionary, and there's a thumb index, colored plates and 5000 of the new words, and the binding of the book looks for all the world like leather, and the dealers say it wears better.

A Purchasing Agent.

NEWS REPORTS FROM CO

FINDS LIFE NOT WORTH LIVING

SICK AND OUT OF FUNDS, MAN TAKES POISON.

Rabbit Hunters Discover Remains of Suicide in the Brush Near the Mouth of Temescal Canyon in the Santa Monica Mountains—Municipal Campaign Slow.

SANTA MONICA, Nov. 26.—While hunting for rabbits this afternoon B. F. Lee and his little grandson, William Moody, discovered the body of an unknown man. They were in the hills near the mouth of Temescal Cañon. The man was lying on a bed of grass he had improvised among the bushes. He had been dead perhaps three days. There were no evidences of wounds or bodily injury and the conclusion was reached that suicide had been by means of poison. The body was removed to the Todd undertaking parlors, where the Coroner will conduct an official inquest tomorrow.

In the man's pocket was an unsigned note, roughly scrawled with pencil on a piece of wrapping paper. It read: "Life haint worth living. I have been laid up seven months with the rheumatism, so I couldn't work and I spent $300 and my money is all gone and my eyesight is failing and I am afraid I am going blind so I would sooner be dead, so good bye."

The body weighs 180 pounds, is 5 feet 9 inches in height and about 35 years of age. The hair is black and the moustache dark, although tinged with gray. The shoes are coarse and heavy, the soles being thickly studded with hob nails. The coat is of corduroy, pants of dark material, overalls blue and shirt of black and white stripes.

OUTLOOK SOLD.
The Daily Outlook was sold today by D. G. Holt to a syndicate of local capitalists. Notice of the sale is printed this evening, but the sale is no hint as to the policy of the paper in the present municipal campaign, although the deal was engineered by E. S. Hunter, who is managing the Roy Jones mayoralty campaign. The paper has been a supporter of Lindsey's candidacy. H. M. McNeill of Sawtelle will represent the new owners as manager. The price at which the stock of the incorporated concern was transferred has not been made public.

INJUNCTION SUIT.

City officials were today served with papers in an injunction suit brought against the city this morning at the instance of E. J. H. C. Hollwedel. The action, which is heard in the Superior Court Monday afternoon, was sought for the purpose of preventing the city from paying permanently the cost of the bond for the payment of what is known as the "water claim." The city officials are asked to prevent the city from making such payments until a judgment has been made. But for the injunction, the Council next Monday night would have paid $100,000 in interest on the sum of $1885.32 in favor of the Portland Cement and Grading Company. The suit grew out of the building of the new bridge over the Willamette river, which was completed last year. The city officials suggested arbitration. A board awarded the city $100,000 in interest on the bond. Hollwedel alleges that nothing should be paid, that the bond fund ation. Miles is chairman of the council's Finance Committee, and his associate in the action was the city's attorney, who is in charge of the registration and is a candidate for mayor. He is also a member of the Council from the Sixth Ward.

Those who have charge of the lists of names who registered voters estimate that on December 7 there will be polled more than 144,000 votes, although there are 208,700 names on the Great Register. The names of people who have moved out of the city or have re-registered in other precincts. The actual number of voters is expected to be about 144,000, and the stay-at-home vote is estimated, will amount to 20 per cent.

MUNICIPAL CAMPAIGN.
The only man who is making a speaking campaign is Robert Dollard, independent candidate for Mayor. His platform is "No salary for the Mayor." That official now receives $1500 per year. Dollard spoke before a large crowd tonight on Main street near Hollister avenue. He talks from a dry-dock box and will visit the byways of the seven wards. A public meeting is being arranged for the City Hall, Saturday night. This will be in the interest of Roy Jones's race for the mayoralty.

Modern Ideas As Asthma

The following article on the uselessness of seeking a cure for Asthma by a changing climate is reprinted from the Hayes Bulletin, a quarterly journal devoted to Asthma and Hay Fever, published at Buffalo, N. Y.

California, Colorado, New Mexico, Arizona, Nevada, Wyoming and some

Other States of the Union, or portions of these States, are almost universally believed by sufferers who have not resorted to them to be "exempt localities" for malaria. For this belief, however, is fostered by the unkind advice of friends, by the recommendations of physicians who do not know whereof they speak, and by the hopelessness and helplessness of sufferers who "have tried everything else."

Well-informed people know that this idea is erroneous. There are sufferers in every State of the Union, and in every part of every State, and many of whom have resorted to the most prominent location in the hope of escaping from the power of their disease.

Many of them have exiled themselves from home and friends, and some have sacrificed all of their property and their future prospects in seeking for climatic change the relief they must have. A few have succeeded, but it has been a vain hope with the greater portion. They have found either that they have not obtained the relief and cure they were told or believed they would receive, or they have secured only a respite more or less transient from their suffering, and after a brief period of "being better" have found to their horror that the disease was still with them and the so-called climatic cure was after all a failure. It is easy enough to say, "There is no cure for asthma, but a change of climate," or "You should go West," without realizing that this to many is impossible; to others a tearing up by the roots. And indeed to be accomplished, and only at a most tremendous sacrifice, and after all only a chance at the best.

It is the treatment ordinarily given by physicians any more reliable or successful. Sprays, inhalations, poultices, smokes, injections of morphine, cocaine and the endless array of drugs and patent medicines used in
